

Shiocton Public Library Donations of Collection Materials Policy

The Shiocton Public Library will accept donations of books and other collection materials. Once donated, the materials become the property of the library, and the library reserves the right to use and dispose of them in the manner most useful to the library.

This could include, but is not limited to, adding them to the collection, sending them to other libraries or schools, placing them in the used book sale, use them for some of our programming, or disposing of them.

By law, the library is not allowed to appraise the value of donated materials, although it can provide an acknowledgement of receipt of the items if requested by the donor.
